Owls' Nest

Foreword

YOUR TREASURE CHEST

Make for yourself a treasure chest,
But not for gems and gold-- Fill it with things more rare and fine,
As full as it will hold.

Into it place your kindly thoughts,
Of friends whom you hold dear,
The classes, the teachers, the happy hours,
That fill your life with cheer.

And then if dark days come along,
And your bright prospects mar,
Open your treasure chest and see How very rich you are!

At the teachers here;
Pick out the ones
You've had this year.
Just scan the pan
Of everyone-
You may have worked,
But you had fun.

What do you mean by stealing my new silk socks.

I know you do, Dickie Boy!

Papa's married! Oh! Boo! Hoo! Hoo!

You are the ones who started all the plain and fancy lying around here.

Careful, Woddy!

I think it's very strange she hasn't found that snake.

Farewell

As we pass slowly out of these doors that have seen so many come and go, all too quickly we hear the doors of the years past, quietly shutting behind us; and we go forth eagerly to open the doors to the future and whatever it may bring.

For when one door is shut--another opens.

Dear Phyllis,
 I want to wish you all the luck in the world,
 because you deserve
 it. It sure has been fun in B.B. Love, Sharon Darlene

Kenny,
 I've enjoyed coaching you this year & also teasing you about her.
 pecking Jeff so much. Thanks for working in the office. Best wishes to a real nice girl.
 W.A. Seals

Best wishes to a real sweet girl. One thing I would never wish on you is that you should never have another weekend like the one we had in San Antonio. We did have fun though, especially at one o'clock Saturday morning. May you always have everything in life that you want.

Love,
 Pancy
